CPD Employee	Accused UNKNOWN,					ON Duty	The reporting party victim alleges that while his vehicle was parked on the street in front of his mother's home one unknown white male officer searched the vehicle and found marijuana that was in the ashtray (approx. 2 grams). There was an occupant in the vehicle, but the officers failed to detain or arrest the occupant. The vehicle was a rental car which was rented by the victim's wife, but he was in possession of the car. The victim inquired about the search and was arrested. The victim alleges the vehicle was searched then driven to the 022nd District station by the unknown Hispanic male officer. The victim was arrested and transported by the unknown white male officer to Walgreens located on 95th Ashland. The unknown Hispanic Male drove the victim's vehicle to Walgreens and parked the vehicle in the handicapped spot and went into Walgreens and shopped while the victim was left in an unmarked squad car handcuffed with an unknown white male officer. The victim alleges that the Hispanic officer went into the store for about 15-20 minutes and purchased a case of water and a bag with unknown items and placed the items into the unmarked squad car. While in the store the unknown White officer got out of the squad car and began harassing other patrons which were parked next to the squad car. The victim was then transported to the 22nd District lockup where unknown officers informed him that Enterprise would come and pickup the rental vehicle.
